Rate Comparison Shipping Solution

Take advantage of Postal alternatives.

From the U.S. Postal Service® to private carriers, there are a lot of shipping options out there. Endicia Platinum Shipper software is a powerful rate-shopping tool that works alongside UPS or Fed Ex to evaluate every package, comparing those rates to the Postal Service[™], ensuring you can take advantage of the best price. This is essential if you ship to residential addresses, lightweight packages, or volumes that don't supportmanifesting. And it uses the same software, hardware, and database integration you have built with your existing free carrier software.
